

Scenes from the State's Inaugural Ceremony

A cadet from The Citadel escorts Sue Rex, wife of incoming State Superintendent of Education Jim Rex, down the Statehouse steps as Inaugural ceremonies begin on Wednesday morning, January 10 at the building's southern entrance. The procession included members of the General Assembly, the State Supreme Court and other judges, college presidents, diplomatic representatives, former governors, incoming state and constitutional officers, and other state and local officials.

In the photo below, Lt. Gov. André Bauer administers the Oath of Office for the state's new constitutional officers. Jim Rex is at the center of the photograph, behind the microphone and next to Adjutant Gen. Stan Spears.

